

Air Astra celebrates second anniversary

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 December, 2024

Dhaka : Air Astra, the youngest private airline of Bangladesh, celebrated its second anniversary on November 24, 2024.

To mark the special occasion, Air Astra organised an in-flight celebration for its passengers. The airline organised live music for passengers onboard by renowned band singer Palash Noor as well as magic performance by the young magician Magic Razik.

Speaking on the occasion, Imran Asif, CEO, Air Astra, said, "To elevate passenger experience, Air Astra has consistently improved its on-time performance, expanded its fleet and launched innovative programmes like the Orbit Frequent Flyer Programme and the Celestar In-Flight Magazine."

"Recognising global standards, the airline has achieved IOSA registration and became the youngest-ever IATA member airline from Bangladesh."

"As we look to the future, we remain committed to providing exceptional service, expanding our network and setting new industry standards," added Asif.

Since its inception, Air Astra has been in efforts to redefine air travel in Bangladesh, setting new standards for safety, punctuality and customer experience, said a release.

As Air Astra enters its third year, the airline remains committed to providing exceptional service and expanding its network to connect more destinations, further informed the release.

With a focus on innovation, safety and customer satisfaction, Air Astra is poised to shape the future of air travel in Bangladesh, it concluded.
