

Air Astra joins Chittagong Travel Mart as Title Sponsor

A Monitor Report

Date: 16 December, 2022

Dhaka : Air Astra, the new private airline of the country, will support the upcoming Chittagong Travel Mart (CTM) 2023. Organised by the premier travel and tourism publication The Bangladesh Monitor, the 13th edition of the three-day international tourism fair will be held at the Peninsula Chittagong Hotel in the port city of Chattogram from January 5 to 7, 2023.

Kazi Wahidul Alam, Editor, The Bangladesh Monitor and Imran Asif, CEO and Accountable Manager, Air Astra signed an agreement to this effect on December 12 at the latter's head office in the capital.

Md Mahbub Ali, State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism will formally inaugurate the Chittagong Travel Mart in the morning of January 5, 2023 as the chief guest. Mahbub Alam, President, the Chittagong Chamber of Commerce and Industry will be present as the special guest.

Airlines, tour operators, hotels, resorts, online travel agencies, hospitals and other healthcare service providers, immigration solution providers, and others from home and abroad will showcase their products and services at the fair. Participating organizations will offer exciting discounts on air tickets, tour packages, hotel rooms and other tourism products and services for visitors during the fair.

'Air Astra Chittagong Travel Mart 2023' will remain open for all from 10 am to 8 pm during fair days.