

Air Astra takes off with Dhaka-Cox's Bazar trip

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 December, 2022

Dhaka : Bangladesh's newest private airline, Air Astra, operated its maiden flight at full capacity from Dhaka to Cox's Bazar on November 24.

Air Astra is operating three flights on the Dhaka-Cox's Bazar-Dhaka route and two flights on the Dhaka-Chattogram-Dhaka route from November 24, read a press release.

The airline will launch flights on all domestic routes in the country in phases, it read.

The minimum one-way fare, from Dhaka to Cox's Bazar, was set at BDT 4,800 and Dhaka-Chattogram BDT 3,695.

Air Astra has already taken delivery of two ATR 72-600 aircraft in Dhaka and two more aircraft are scheduled to be delivered within 2022. By 2023, Air Astra's fleet will grow to 10 aircraft, added the press release.

