Date: 16 September, 2023

Dhaka : French President Emmanuel Macron, on September 11, said that Bangladesh had committed to ordering 10 A350s from Airbus, marking the South Asian country's first deal with the European plane manufacturer in a move away from its Boeing dominated fleet.

French officials said the deal for the A350 widebody aircraft is being finalised with the national carrier Biman Bangladesh Airlines.

Speaking at the joint media briefing after a meeting with Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at the Prime Minister's Office in the capital, the French President expressed, "I thank you for your trust in the European aerospace industry and this commitment for 10 Airbus A350s is important."

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina said, "We both hope that this new strategic move between Bangladesh and France will play an effective role in establishing regional and global stability and peace."

Reports cited Md Mahbub Ali, State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism, saying, the initial order would be for two Airbus aircraft.

Currently, Biman has a Boeing dominated fleet of 21 planes: six Boeing 737-800s, four 777-300ERs, four 787-8s, two 787-9s, and five short-haul De Havilland Canada Dash-8 400s.

"We have asked for 10 aircraft in phases. The technical committee is now evaluating. These aircraft will be used on new and old routes. Each country has Airbus and Boeing in its fleet but we only have Boeing and not a single Airbus," said the State Minister, as per reports.

Biman's demand for more widebody aircraft comes as travel is witnessing a strong rebound in the post-pandemic times.

The national airline is currently operating direct flights to 20 destinations worldwide including the UK, Canada, Japan, Malaysia, and Thailand.
