

Biman clinches Gold for Best In-Flight Meal in Economy Class

- A Monitor Report

Date: 16 July, 2025

Dhaka : Biman Bangladesh Airlines earned top honors in the Best In-Flight Meal in Economy Class category at the ShareTrip-Monitor Airline of the Year Awards 2024, securing the Gold award for its improved culinary offerings that blend quality, taste, and cultural familiarity.

Singapore Airlines and Turkish Airlines were awarded the Silver and Bronze trophies respectively, completing the list of carriers recognized for delivering satisfying dining experiences to passengers flying in economy class.

Singapore Airlines representative receiving Silver trophy

Biman's key highlights include: authentic Bangladeshi meals, such as chicken curry with polao, beef rezala, and daal-bhat; improved presentation and hygienic packaging; fresh seasonal fruits, desserts, and traditional sweets on longer routes; and culturally familiar taste appreciated by Bangladeshi expatriates and migrant workers.

Turkish Airlines official receiving Bronze trophy

Silver winner Singapore Airlines continues to impress with its refined and diverse inflight meals in economy class. Features include: thoughtfully curated Asian and Western options tailored to routes; meals served hot with a choice of entrée, salad, dessert, and rolls; special meals for dietary and religious preferences (halal, vegetarian, gluten-free); and elegant presentation and consistently high service standards.

Bronze winner Turkish Airlines offers a flavorful and well-balanced dining experience in economy. Highlights include: mediterranean-inspired cuisine like grilled chicken, bulgur wheat, and mezze platters; freshly baked bread, cheese, and Turkish desserts such as baklava; menu changes based on flight duration and destination.
