

China Southern launches new flights between Shenyang, Dubai

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 January, 2025

Shenyang : China Southern Airlines launched a new flight route on December 28, 2024, connecting Shenyang, the capital of Liaoning Province in northeast China, with Dubai in the UAE.

The airline is operating Airbus A330-300 on the route, including a stopover in Guangzhou, Guangdong Province.

This route enhances connectivity between the two cities, eliminating the need for additional transfers.

It also strengthens the airline's focus on the Guangzhou-Dubai sector, offering passengers flexible travel options with expanded services and upgraded aircraft.

The weekly flight operates every Saturday, departing Shenyang Taoxian International Airport at 8:10 am (Beijing Time) and landing in Dubai at 7:20 pm (local time).

The return flight departs Dubai at 9:20 pm (local time) on Saturday and arrives in Shenyang at 1:45 pm (Beijing Time) on Sunday.

Around 80 per cent of the maiden flight tickets from Shenyang to Dubai were sold to passengers travelling for business, study, work, family visits, and tourism.
