

Etihad Airways increases frequency to three weekly to Dhaka

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 January, 2021

Dhaka: Etihad Airways has announced an additional frequency on their scheduled passenger services between Dhaka and Abu Dhabi taking the total number of flights to three weekly effective from December 26.

Previously the carrier operated two weekly flights on the route which connects Dhaka via Abu Dhabi to Europe and North America.

Flight EY240 will depart Abu Dhabi at 9:30 and reach Dhaka at 15:55 on Thursdays, Saturdays, and Sundays while the return flight from Dhaka will fly at 17:25 and land in Abu Dhabi at 21:00 on the same days.