

Kuwait Airways launching 17 new destinations this summer

A Monitor Report

Date: 16 February, 2022

Kuwait City : Kuwait Airways announced the launch of flights to 17 new tourist destinations this summer in a move to increase travel traffic with more options for travellers.

In a press release, the airline's CEO Eng Maen Razouqi said, the total number of destinations in Kuwait Airways' network has gone up to 57 now with the new additions.

Flights to the new 17 destinations including Malacca, Moscow, Sarajevo, Nice, Salalah, Sharm El Sheikh, Sohag, Alexandria, Mykanos, Bodrum, Trabzon, Vienna, Madrid, Casablanca, Manchester, Kathmandu and Kuala Lumpur, will begin from May.

"In choosing the new destinations, Kuwait Airways had put into consideration the most demanded and preferred destinations by all social segments, whether for business, tourism or education," the airline's CEO noted.

Rozouqi further stressed the airline's interest to reach best quality of service excellence with continuous improvement and innovation.

The airline wishes to provide the passengers with the best levels of service keeping pace with the latest developments in the aviation sector.

The launching of the new travel destinations comes as part of the airline's strategy to meet the growing demand of travel in these new markets important to travellers, he claimed.