

Kuwait Airways unveils new business class, routes, uniforms

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 February, 2023

Kuwait City : Kuwait Airways made a big announcement titled The Reveal, which includes unveiling a new business class cabin for its Airbus A330-900s, new routes, and a new uniform for employees.

The Gulf carrier has seven A330-900s on order and unveiled that the new aircraft will be delivered with a new business class product and a premium economy cabin.

Kuwait Airways currently has four A330-800s in its fleet and a further seven A330-900s are to come.

Kuwait is diversifying its twin-aisle fleet, which includes ten Boeing 777-300ERs, all relatively new.

The Gulf carrier is also awaiting delivery of two Airbus A320neos, nine A321neos, and two A350-900s.

In addition to the new hard product announcement, Kuwait Airways unveiled several new destinations it will begin to serve throughout the year. The destinations are Athens, Antalya, Barcelona, Berlin, and Budapest, including multiple cities in Saudi Arabia like Abha, Taif, Oula, and Qassim.