

Malaysia Airlines launches direct flights to Paris

- A Monitor Report

Date: 16 September, 2024

Kuala Lumpur : Malaysia Airlines announced the launch of direct flights to Charles de Gaulle Airport in Paris, France, marking a key milestone in the airline's European expansion. This route, which will commence on March 22, 2025, represents Malaysia Airlines' 68th destination, reinforcing its position as the gateway to Asia and beyond.

In celebration of the route's return after nearly a decade, Malaysia Airlines is unveiling the "Time for Paris" campaign. The service will operate four weekly flights from March 22, 2025, operating directly from KL international Airport Terminal One using the A350-900 aircraft, and starting daily flights from March 29, 2025.

Datuk Captain Izham Ismail, Group MD, Malaysia Aviation Group, said, "Our expansion into Europe marks a significant milestone for Malaysia Airlines. With the arrival of additional widebody aircraft starting this Quarter 4, we are ready to bring this long-awaited city back into our network.”
