

Malaysia Airlines launches holiday special offers for Bangladeshi passengers

-A Monitor Report

Date: 17 February, 2024

Dhaka : Malaysia Airlines announces its holiday special limited offers for Bangladeshi passengers.

The airline is offering Economy Class fares from BDT 41259 all-in return and Business Class fares from BDT 97002 all-in return on Dhaka-Kuala Lumpur route.

Passengers can book by February 26, 2024 with their preferred travel agent, said the airline in a release.

On the other hand, as part of fleet expansion efforts, Malaysia Aviation Group (MAG) is going to induct 12 new aircraft in 2024, including its first Airbus 330-900 (A330neo) scheduled to arrive in 3Q2024. The group is looking to receive four of the new aircraft type in 2024, alongside eight of the Boeing 737-8 aircraft to support its network growth requirements, as per reports.

In August 2022, MAG signed Memorandums of Understanding (MOU) with Airbus, Rolls-Royce and Avolon for the acquisition of 20 A330neo aircraft which are scheduled to be delivered through to 2028.

Furthermore, Malaysia Airlines has expanded its offer-and-order based retailing to travel sellers as the carrier's NDC content is now available through the Sabre travel marketplace. Sabre-connected travel sellers in key markets can now shop, book and serve Malaysia Airlines' NDC offers, alongside traditional content options, through Sabre's Offer and Order APIs, agency point-of-sale solution, Sabre Red 360 and Sabre's corporate booking tool-GetThere.

Malaysia Airlines' NDC offers are now available through Sabre's marketplace in Australia, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and the UK, with additional markets to follow.
