

Malaysia Airlines resumes flights to Paris

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 April, 2025

Kuala Lumpur : Malaysia Airlines has marked its return to Paris-its 68th destination-with the resumption of flights to Charles de Gaulle Airport.

The national carrier said the inaugural flight departed Kuala Lumpur International Airport on March 22.

Malaysia Airlines is operating daily flights between Kuala Lumpur and Paris.

To commemorate the service, the airline also introduced the 'Time for Memorable Journeys' pocketbook for all passengers on this new route.

As part of Malaysia Airlines' commitment to enhancing global connectivity, its long-standing partnership with American Airlines expands travel options for passengers flying to and from Paris and beyond.

With the reinstatement of the Paris route, passengers can now access four additional US destinations via Charles de Gaulle Airport-New York, Dallas, Miami, and Orlando-further strengthening the airline's role in linking Europe with Asia and beyond.
