

Qatar Airways eyes flying to over 140 destinations by July

A Monitor Report

Date: 16 June, 2021

Dubai : Qatar Airways has announced plans to increase the airline's extensive international network in Asia, Africa, Australia and the Americas, which currently stands at over 130 destinations to over 140 destinations by the end of July.

From July 1, the airline will be resuming services to Sharjah in the UAE with one daily flight. The Sharjah services will be operated by the airline's Boeing 787 Dreamliner featuring 22 seats in first class and 232 seats in economy.

The restart of services will enable passengers flying from and to Sharjah to benefit from the airline's international network in Asia, Africa, Australia and the Americas, with plans to increase to more than 1,200 weekly flights to over 140 destinations by July-end, added the airline.

Sharjah will be an alternative gateway for passengers to and from the other cities especially Dubai in the UAE, it further mentioned.

Qatar airways flight QR1036, will depart from Hamad International Airport at 14:35, arriving at 16:45 to Sharjah. Qatar Airways daily flight QR1037, will depart from Sharjah at 17:55, and arrive to Doha at 18:05.