

Saudia launches flights to Seoul

A Monitor Report

Date: 16 August, 2022

Jeddah : Saudi Arabian Airlines (Saudia) has launched flights to Seoul, South Korea on August 16, 2022.

The airline operates the route with Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft configured in two classes with 24 flat-bed seats in Business Class and 274 seats in Guest Class.

The plane features inflight television screens in every seat with up to 5,000 hours of entertainment available to watch.

Flight SV898 is scheduled to leave Jeddah (JED) at 01:00 with a quick stop in Riyadh (RUH) before arriving at Incheon International Airport (ICN) at 19:50.

The return leg, flight SV899, is timed to depart Incheon at 21:40, arriving in Riyadh at 02:10 and Jeddah at 04:45 the following day.