

SriLankan Airlines wins 2023 APEX Regional Passenger Choice Awards

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 January, 2023

Colombo : SriLankan Airlines reinforced its position as a passenger favourite by winning the coveted 2023 APEX Passenger Choice Awards® for Best Food and Beverage and Best Seat Comfort in Central/Southern Asia at the recent FTE APEX Asia EXPO held in Singapore.

SriLankan also retained its status as a Four-Star Major Airline in the 2023 APEX Official Airline Ratings™ for the fifth consecutive year. The APEX Passenger Choice Awards® and APEX Official Airline Ratings™ are based upon anonymous and neutral passenger ratings collected from over one million flights of nearly 600 airlines.

On the occasion, Richard Nuttall, Chief Executive Officer, SriLankan Airlines stated, "We are extremely honoured to be recognised by our valued customers, once again, for providing an exceptional onboard experience. This further strengthens our resolve to continue offering the best for our customers. Each award serves as a tribute to the tireless effort, teamwork and creativity of the people of SriLankan Airlines and I would like to thank every member of the SriLankan family for bringing the airline to the international spotlight."

SriLankan Airlines has won a total of 12 APEX Passenger Choice Awards® to date for its services in the Asia-Pacific region, and has been a constant on the winners' list since 2018. SriLankan Airlines currently operates close to 160 weekly flights to 27 cities in the Asia-Pacific.
