

Thai Airways launching flights to Dhaka on Jan 1

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 November, 2021

Dhaka : Thai Airways has announced to resume flight services to and from Dhaka, Bangladesh from January 1, 2022.

The airline will operate flights on Bangkok-Dhaka-Bangkok route on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from January 1, said Thai Airways in an announcement.

Also, Thai Airways will resume full services on 36 foreign routes to destinations in Europe, Asia and Australia, most on October 31, in response to the government's decision to reopen the kingdom to tourists on November 1.

THAI Executive Vice President for Commerce Non Kalinta announced the decision on October 14.

He said the resumption of international services was in the airline's winter flight plan, to be implemented from October 31 to March 26.
