

The Bangladesh Monitor steps into 32nd year

A Monitor Report

Date: 16 September, 2022

Dhaka : The leading travel trade publication of the country The Bangladesh Monitor has stepped into its 32nd year on September 1.

On the occasion, the Monitor management wishes and congratulates all the readers, well-wishers, and those who have supported the publication throughout all this time.

The Bangladesh Monitor was first published on September 1, 1991. Industry expert Kazi Wahidul Alam has been serving as the Editor since then.

Since its publication, The Bangladesh Monitor has been playing an effective role in creating a prosperous and developed Bangladesh by promoting and developing the aviation and tourism industry, presenting the country's natural beauty, sightseeing places and tourist attractions to local and foreign tourists with dedication and honesty.

Today 'The Bangladesh Monitor' is not just a publication but a voice of development and growth of the tourism industry. There is hardly any place in the aviation and tourism industry that has not come in direct or indirect contact with this organisation for the last 31 years.

In order to play a role in the development of aviation and tourism industry in the country, The Bangladesh Monitor has distinguished itself in different circles by organising various programmes including seminars, symposiums, talk shows, travel fairs and events.

On the occasion of The Bangladesh Monitor's 31st anniversary, a casual get-together of Monitor family members was held at the office on September 1. Industry well-wishers and admirers also came to The Bangladesh Monitor office to express their felicitations.
