A Monitor Report

Date: 16 December, 2022

Dhaka : After closing their earlier location on the Old Airport Road, Bookworm Bangladesh, a popular bookstore, is going to open their new branch inside the Shahabuddin Park in the capital's Gulshan 2 area, the bookstore stated on its Facebook page on December 4.

The Bangladesh Air Force in September notified Bookworm that the outlet had to vacate the place in two months, which is why the store was vacating its current premises at Old Airport Road.

With a collection of imported English books in a variety of genres - fiction as well as non-fiction, the store, over time, became popular for English language book lovers of all ages - from young to old.

Bookworm has been attending Dhaka Lit Fest since its beginning and will appear at next year's edition from January 5-8, 2023.
