

Global Money Week-2022 presented by FSIBL held

A Monitor Report

Date: 01 April, 2022

Dhaka : The closing and award giving ceremony of Global Money Week-2022 presented by First Security Islami Bank was held at 71 auditorium of Daffodil Education Network on March 30.

Based on the theme "Build Your Future, Be Smart About Money" in tandem with 176 countries around the world, Daffodil International University and Bangladesh Skill Development Institute jointly organised the festival to create financial awareness among the younger generation where First Security Islami Bank Ltd was the chief patron.

It is to be noted that, in the year 2015 and 2017, Bangladesh has twice been awarded and recognised for its outstanding contribution in creating financial literacy among the young generation by competing with 160 countries of the world.

Dr Shaikh Shamsuddin Ahmed, Commissioner, Bangladesh Security Exchange Commission was present in the closing and award giving ceremony as the chief guest.

Syed Waseque Md. Ali, Managing Director, First Security Islami Bank Ltd, Professor Dr Md Masum Iqbal, Dean, Faculty of Business and Entrepreneurship of Daffodil International University, Prof Ujjal K Chowdhury, Adviser, Daffodil International University, Major General (Rtd) Sarwar Hossain, Former Military Secretary to the President and Executive Chairman, A F C Agro Biotech Ltd, Munir Hasan, Chief of Youth Development of the daily Prothom Alo, Tohurul Hassan, Programme Manager, Digital Exchange and Digital Financial Services (a2i), K M Hasan Ripon, Chief Executive officer of Bangladesh Skill Development Institute and Ameena Hasan Ena, Deputy Director, Daffodil International University were present on the occasion as Special Guests.