Dhaka : The popular kebab joint Authentic Kabab Express located at Banani is now serving delicious Bangla cuisine alongside the kebab delicacies it is renowned for. Launched in last November, the new authentic Bangla cuisine menu has garnered a pretty good response from people despite pandemic blues.

Among several mouth-watering items, the traditional styled bharta varieties are the main crowd-favourites. The restaurant is offering over 30 bharta varieties such as potato, eggplant, dal, tomato, egg, fish, kalojira, and dhonya pudina at a reasonable price range of BDT 70-120. Meat-lovers need not worry. There are two other bhartas, meat and a house special, priced at BDT 200 and BDT 250 respectively.

Now for the main course, people seem to love the tongue-pleasing fish and meat items Authentic Kabab Express is serving. There are varieties to choose from, enough to please every taste bud. Chital, rui, pangash, prawn, rupchada, hilsha, koi, baim, pabda, duck, beef, mutton, chicken, and squab (kobutor) - they have got it all at a price range of BDT 300-800 with a house special curry at BDT 900.

And, to complete the perfect meal for any Bengali on any given day, daal and bhat are, of course, the basics - a fact that does not get unnoticed at Authentic Kabab Express.

Not to forget, the restaurant has a knack for keeping things authentic as the name

Authentic Kabab Express itself suggests. Hence, all meals are cooked on order. This may take some time. But a great man once said - patience is bitter, but its fruit is sweet - this could not be truer in this case. Because as soon as you take a bite of the freshly cooked pure Bangla food, you might feel it was worth the wait.
