

Best resorts across mountains, tea gardens, seas, cities in Bangladesh

- A Monitor Special

Date: 01 April, 2025

Dhaka : Bangladesh boasts plenty of unique and luxury resorts across its mountains, tea gardens, seas, and cities, offering enthusiastic travelers attractive tailor-made getaways.

Following month-long abstinence in Ramadan, families, couples, and groups, are all geared up to spend the coming weekends through exciting staycations.

Some look for the soothing seas, some the adventurous mountains, while some prefer scenic tea gardens, and some urban getaways.

Nevertheless, the country has everything for every traveler, as lush properties with exciting activities offer guests ultimate staycations in all sorts of tourism destination.

Palace amid tea-gardens

Come lose yourself in one of the largest resorts in Bangladesh in the heart of breathtakingly pristine nature. Indulge in a regal experience at the Palace Luxury Resort in Bahubal, Habiganj, Sylhet. Book an escape to this Kingdom of tranquility and experience life the Palace way.

Sairu Hill Resorts in Bandarban

Experience live-cultural events and concerts at their outdoor amphitheatre. Stir up the courage to lose yourself in the labyrinth that is their maze and enjoy one-of-a-kind experience in Bangladesh. At their indoor game zone, play table tennis, pool, billiards, foosball or air hockey.

Sairu in mountains

Sairu Hill Resorts is set against the spectacular greenery covered hill range which is renowned for its natural beauty in Bandarban's hill slopes.

The 12-acre Site has a 360° panoramic view with low drifting clouds from March to September.

The resort features world class service and amenities for local and foreign tourists who wish to relax, surrounded by natural beauty, enjoy walking or trekking and are interested in visiting different indigenous peoples in the vicinity, like a restaurant, club, bar, banquet hall, conference room, meeting rooms, auditorium, kiosk, health club with swimming pool, full power backup through solar and conventional sources, beautifully landscaped greens and parking space for 100 cars, and drivers' accommodation.

Mermaid Beach Resort in Cox's Bazar

Mermaid by the seas

Mermaid Beach Resort in Cox's Bazar is a luxurious eco-resort nestled along the stunning coastline of the world's longest natural sea beach. Surrounded by lush greenery and offering breathtaking ocean views, the resort provides a tranquil escape from the bustling city life.

Guests can indulge in a variety of activities, including beach walks, cycling, fishing, and yoga, while the in-house spa offers rejuvenating treatments. The resort's restaurant serves a delectable selection of organic seafood, traditional Bangladeshi dishes, and international cuisine, ensuring a delightful culinary experience.

Greenview Golf Resort in Gazipur

Greenview near city

Greenview Golf Resort and Spa is located in Gazipur, just a short two-hour drive from Dhaka city. The luxurious resort prides itself in providing complete freedom to its guests to enjoy their stay there in any way they wish.

Greenview Resort offers a large range of unique experiences for its guests, from private golf sessions to a private zoo. They also offer a bubble ball, an activity where guests are encased in huge bubble wraps, with the freedom to roam around in a field.

The unique activities offered by Greenview are great for both friends and family, ensuring all types of guests will have something to look forward to during their stay. Despite the luxury services and facilities offered by Greenview Resort, their rooms are relatively affordable