Dhaka : Golden Tulip The Grandmark Dhaka was honored with multiple titles at the renowned World Luxury Awards, marking a significant achievement for Bangla-desh's hospitality sector.

The hotel was declared a winner in three categories: "Best Luxury Business City Hotel in South-East Asia," "Best Luxury City Hotel in South-East Asia," and "Best Luxury Hotel in Bangladesh."

This international recognition serves as a testament to the hotel's commitment to providing quality service and a world-class luxury experience within Bangladesh. The awards ceremony was held in Singapore.

Golden Tulip The Grandmark Dhaka was commended for setting new benchmarks in luxury hospitality and achieving high levels of guest satisfaction. This success underscores the hotel's dedication to combining luxurious comfort with genuine, high-quality service, setting a new standard for premium accommodation in the region.

Khaled Ur Rahman, Managing Director of Golden Tulip The Grandmark Dhaka, accepted the award on behalf of the institution.

The hotel's success is anchored in its sophisticated offerings, which include internationally-standard rooms, premium dining venues like the Golden Dine, and state-of-the-art amenities, all located in the heart of the capital's upscale Banani area.
