

InterContinental Dhaka appoints David O'Hanlon as new GM

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 June, 2025

Dhaka : InterContinental Dhaka, the luxury hotel by IHG in the capital, announces the appointment of David O'Hanlon as its new General Manager.

David brings with him an impressive career spanning several decades and a portfolio of leadership roles across renowned hospitality brands including Marriott, Sheraton, Dusit, Hilton, and Swiss-Belhotel International.

Known for his strategic vision and hands-on leadership approach, David has consistently driven business growth, operational excellence, and elevated guest satisfaction in luxury hotel environments around the world.

His deep industry knowledge and global experience position him well to align the hotel's strategic goals with continued innovation and financial performance.

"I am honoured to join InterContinental Dhaka and build on its legacy of excellence. With a dedicated team by my side, I look forward to delivering exceptional guest experiences, fostering innovation, and further strengthening the hotel's reputation as a leader in hospitality both in Dhaka and the region," said David.

As General Manager, David will be responsible for overseeing the full operations of the hotel, which features 226 elegantly appointed rooms, two ballrooms, nine meeting venues and five restaurants.