Dhaka : InterContinental Dhaka has introduced a new romantic hospitality campaign titled "Lovescapades", offering curated experiences for honeymooners, anniversary celebrations, and other romantic occasions.

The hotel is promoting two exclusive stay packages designed to enhance couple experiences with luxury accommodations and personalized celebrations.

The first offering, "Suite Sanctuary," is priced at BDT 35,000 net per night and includes a stay in a junior suite. Guests will receive complimentary breakfast for two, romantic room décor, photography access, a celebration cake, and late checkout until 2:00 pm.

The second package, "Romantic Retreat," provides accommodation in a deluxe room with similar inclusions: breakfast for two, room decoration, photography access, a celebration cake, and extended checkout until 2:00 pm.

According to the hotel's offer terms, the promotion cannot be combined with other discounts or offers. Additionally, IHG One Rewards points and member benefits will not be applicable under this package. The offer is available exclusively to Bangladeshi nationals and expatriates permanently residing in Bangladesh.

With "Lovescapades," InterContinental Dhaka aims to position itself as a premium destination for intimate celebrations, blending luxury hospitality with curated romantic experiences.
