Date: 01 July, 2025

Dhaka : Renaissance Dhaka Gulshan Hotel celebrated World Music Day on June 21 with a two-part event that brought together music, fine dining, and celebrity charm under one roof.

The Brew with the star evening commenced with jazz music, as well as a meet and greet at the hotel's signature GBC Café from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm, where guests were treated to a live jazz performance in a cozy café ambiance.

The highlight of the segment was the appearance of celebrity guest Peya Jannatul, who mingled with bloggers, influencers, and media representatives, creating a lively and engaging atmosphere. Complimentary coffee and finger foods were served via pass-around.

The celebration was followed by Fine Dining with Jazz at the hotel's signature outlet SEAR Restaurant from 7:30 pm to 10:00 pm, where a more intimate and refined setting awaited guests.

A curated menu by the hotel's Executive Chef complemented the jazz melodies, offering couples, food lovers, and music enthusiasts a perfect blend of taste and tune.

The event was a reflection of Renaissance Dhaka's commitment to delivering enriching cultural experiences for lifestyle hospitality in the city, as per a release.
