

Air Astra announces zero charge for date changes

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 03 March, 2025

Dhaka: Air Astra announces its Ramadan 2025 travel promotion, designed to offer passengers greater flexibility and convenience during the holy month. The airline is introducing a zero-charge policy for date changes for a specific period.

From the first of Ramadan to the 20th, passengers can enjoy the freedom to change their flight dates without incurring any fees. The offer applies to all ticketing channels, including Air Astra Sales Office, the website, mobile app, and travel agents, said a release.

The offer is applicable for tickets purchased between February 20 and March 20.

This Ramadan promotion reflects Air Astra's commitment to providing passenger-centric solutions and understanding the unique travel needs during this special time of year, added the release.

Air Astra is one of the leading private airlines in Bangladesh, dedicated to providing passengers with safe, reliable, and affordable air travel, further mentioned the release.

It may be mentioned here, Air Astra is operating four daily to/from Cox's Bazar, four daily to/from Chattogram, and three daily to/from Saidpur during Ramadan.

The airline operates a fleet of 4x ATR72-600 aircraft, revered as the most modern and safe turboprop aircraft in its category, concluded the release.
