

Air China Honours Top Travel Agents in Dhaka

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 18 December, 2025

Dhaka: Air China, the national flag carrier of the People's Republic of China, hosted an agent appreciation evening in Dhaka on December 17, 2025 to recognise the contribution of its key travel agency partners in Bangladesh, marking the successful completion of the airline's first year of direct Dhaka-Beijing operations.

The event was hosted by Rezaul Haque Siraji, Marketing & Sales Manager of Air China in Bangladesh. An Ming, Country Manager, praised the role of local partners in strengthening the airline's presence, noting that the direct Beijing-Dhaka service has created an important air link between the two capitals.

Top 20 travel agencies were honoured for their outstanding revenue performance during 2024-2025. Jerry Han, Executive Director of the Irving Group, representing Air China's General Sales Agent R&R Aviation Limited, highlighted the strong foundation built within a year of operations, while Tamim Hossain of Irving Aviation emphasised Air China's global connectivity through its Star Alliance membership and extensive international network.

Air China currently operates four weekly flights between Dhaka and Beijing, offering onward connections to major destinations in Asia, North America and Europe.
