Dhaka: Chief Adviser Professor Muhammad Yunus on December 9 urged diplomats of the European Union (EU) member states to move their visa centres from New Delhi to Dhaka or a neighbouring country.

He made the request during a meeting with EU diplomats at his office in the capital, read a release from the CA's press wing.

“As India restricts visas for Bangladeshis, many students are unable to go to Delhi to get visas for Europe. As a result, they face uncertainty about their education,” expressed the Chief Adviser.

Therefore, if the visa offices are moved to Dhaka or a neighbouring country, both Bangladesh and the European Union will benefit, added Yunus.

Foreign Affairs Adviser Touhid Hossain, present at the meeting, mentioned, Bulgaria has already shifted its visa centre for Bangladeshis to Indonesia and Vietnam. He urged other countries to consider.

The 19-member EU delegation was led by Michael Miller, Ambassador and Head of Delegation of the European Union to Bangladesh.
