

February in Dhaka: City in love, curated by star hotels

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 05 February, 2026

Dhaka: February arrives in Dhaka wrapped in soft winter light, and this year, the city's finest hotels are turning the month of love into a full-blown celebration of romance, indulgence, and togetherness. From candlelit rooftops and honeymoon havens to winter staycations and wedding escapes, Dhaka's star hotels are redefining what it means to celebrate love — whether it is new, timeless, or simply well-deserved.

Across the city, luxury properties are embracing the season with thoughtfully curated experiences that go far beyond a single Valentine's Day dinner. Instead, February unfolds as a romantic calendar filled with intimate stays, gourmet dining, spa indulgences, and memorable moments designed for couples, newlyweds, and even those seeking a cozy escape from routine.

Radisson Blu Dhaka: where love meets elegance

Radisson Blu sets the tone for refined romance with a range of thoughtfully designed experiences. Couples planning a wedding or post-wedding escape can opt for the Wedding Bonanza Room Offer, priced at BDT 15,500++, which includes a one-night stay in a renovated Superior Room, breakfast for two, in-room cake, swan decoration, and added privileges such as swimming pool and gym access. Guests also enjoy 20 percent discounts on food and beverage, laundry, and spa services. This offer is available Thursday to Saturday.
