

Malaysia Cultural Exhibition at DU showcases country's rich heritage

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 17 June, 2025

Dhaka: The vibrant tapestry of Malaysian culture unfolds at the Institute of Modern Languages (IML), University of Dhaka, through an event titled "Malaysia Cultural Exhibition 2025, running from June 17 to 18, 2025.

Professor Niaz Ahmed Khan PhD, Vice Chancellor, University of Dhaka attended the inauguration ceremony on June 17 as the chief guest, while Mohd Shuhada Othman, High Commissioner of Malaysia to Bangladesh, was present as the guest of honor.

The two-day event promises an immersive experience into the heart of Malaysia's diverse heritage. The exhibition is a testament to the strong collaborative ties between the High Commission of Malaysia in Dhaka and the Center for Global Studies (CGS) at Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (UPSI).

The partnership, which saw the establishment of a dedicated Malay Studies Center at the IML in 2023, continues to foster academic and cultural exchange between the two nations.

Visitors to the Malaysia Cultural Exhibition 2025 can expect a captivating display of traditional Malaysian arts, crafts, and performances.

The exhibition aims to provide a comprehensive insight into Malaysia's multicultural society, showcasing its unique customs, delicious cuisine, intricate textiles, and traditional music. It will serve as an excellent platform for students, academics, and the general public to deepen their understanding and appreciation of Malaysian culture, said a release.

Batik Air and EDOTCO Bangladesh are supporting the event as sponsors.

The Malaysia Cultural Exhibition 2025 is a must-attend event for anyone interested in exploring the beauty and richness of Malaysian culture. It offers a unique opportunity to experience a slice of Malaysia right here in Dhaka, concluded the release.
