

Oman Air to operate 787-9 Dreamliner on selected flights to Dhaka

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 13 April, 2026

Dhaka: Oman Air will operate its state-of-the-art Boeing 787-9 Dreamliners on selected flights to Dhaka in April, offering passengers an elevated travel experience with enhanced comfort, modern amenities, and exceptional Omani hospitality.

According to an official statement, the Muscat-based carrier will deploy its 288-seater 787-9 Dreamliners to Dhaka on April 16, 23, and 29. The airline's 288-seater Dreamliners feature 30 luxurious business class and 258 spacious economy class seats in a comfortable two-class cabin layout, catering to both premium and value-conscious travelers.

Oman Air's award-winning Business Class offers fully lie-flat seats to ensure restful journeys; direct aisle access for maximum privacy and convenience; large personal entertainment screens with an extensive selection of movies, TV shows, and music; exclusive amenity kits and plush bedding for enhanced comfort; and access to premium lounges and priority services across the journey.

Meanwhile, the passengers in Economy Class can enjoy ergonomically designed seats with generous legroom; advanced in-flight entertainment systems; thoughtful cabin lighting and reduced cabin noise for a relaxing journey; warm and attentive service reflecting Oman Air's hospitality standards; and authentic Omani hospitality and dining.

In addition to this aircraft upgrade, Oman Air has introduced special promotional fares on this route. Alongside, the airline has strategically aligned the Dreamliner-operated flights to provide smooth onward connections to major European destinations, including London, Milan, Rome, Frankfurt, Zurich, Paris, Istanbul, and Moscow, and key GCC destinations via Muscat.

The Middle Eastern carrier said passengers can further enhance their travel experience by enrolling in the airline's frequent flyer program, Sindbad. The program offers its members the ability to earn and redeem miles across a wide network, enjoy exclusive privileges, and unlock tier-based benefits.
