

Qiddiya City: Saudi's New Wonder Awaits Bangladeshi Travellers

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 12 November, 2025

Saudi is shaping a bright new future, and at the centre of this transformation stands Qiddiya City, the world's first purpose-built destination dedicated to the Power of Play - the belief that joyful experiences, creativity, and exploration can inspire people, unlock potential, and transform lives.

Spanning approximately 376 square kilometres on the edge of Riyadh's majestic Tuwaiq cliffs, Qiddiya is being developed by the Qiddiya Investment Company (QIC) and is planned to open for tourists by the end of the current year. Once fully operational, it is projected to attract about 48 million visitors annually, creating more than 50,000 jobs in hospitality, retail, and creative industries. The city aims to become a global capital for entertainment, sports, and culture—and a defining symbol of Saudi's new era of transformation.

For visitors from Bangladesh, Qiddiya represents more than a new travel spot; it's a gateway to the ultimate Arabian experience and future of Halal hospitality.

The City Where Play Comes to Life

Imagine a city that celebrates life through excitement, creativity, and shared experiences. Qiddiya brings together 25 distinct districts, each designed around a different form of recreation—from theme parks to motorsport arenas and art venues.

A Cultural and Creative Heartbeat

Beyond the thrills, Qiddiya will also serve as a cultural and artistic hub. The Performing Arts Centre, dramatically positioned along the Tuwaiq mountains, will host concerts, theatre performances, and festivals year-round—celebrating both Saudi and global artistry.

For Bangladeshi travellers, Qiddiya means the opportunity to experience world-class entertainment in an Islamic-friendly, family-oriented environment—reflecting shared values of culture and togetherness.

Why Qiddiya Should Be on Every Bangladeshi Traveller's Radar

1. Proximity and Ease

Located just 40 minutes from Riyadh, Qiddiya is easily accessible via expressways and an upcoming high-speed rail link. With daily flights from Dhaka to Riyadh, weekend or short-stay trips are both realistic and convenient.

2. Authentic Halal Hospitality

Qiddiya's hospitality remains authentically Arabian—offering 100% halal cuisine, family-friendly venues, and a sense of cultural familiarity. From shawarma to biryani, the culinary experience will feel comfortingly close to home.

3. Beyond Spiritual Travel and Business

Traditionally, Bangladeshis have travelled to Saudi mainly for Umrah, or business. Qiddiya introduces a new dimension—leisure tourism—focused on recreation, family bonding, and cultural exploration.

4. Adventure for All Budgets

The city's range of attractions caters to diverse budgets, from free public parks and cultural events to premium theme parks and resorts—ensuring families, couples, and solo travellers can design experiences to match their preferences.
