

Riyadh Season 2025: A Family-Friendly Experience at Boulevard World

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 27 November, 2025

Riyadh Season 2025 has begun, and Boulevard World remains one of its most popular family destinations. Not only does it bring together culture, entertainment, and leisure through immersive themed zones inspired by different regions of the world, it also places strong emphasis on accessibility and comfort, making it ideal for group and family visits.

Visitors will find convenient internal transportation services, ample seating, and clean, family-friendly amenities. Designated prayer spaces and a broad selection of dining options ensure that visitors of all ages—children, parents, and seniors—can enjoy their time comfortably. The venue's thoughtful layout supports smooth movement, allowing families to explore the attractions with ease.

Entertainment and Activities for All Ages

Boulevard World features multiple zones, each showcasing unique décor, regional food selections, and entertainment elements. Visitors can explore diverse cultural atmospheres, enjoy international cuisines, and discover photo-worthy spots throughout the venue.

A few zones stand out for families. Cocomelon World is a must-visit for those with toddlers, offering colourful character-themed play areas, interactive music activities, and safe soft-play spaces that keep young children entertained. For families with older children or teenagers, the Super Fly Experience provides an exciting highlight, allowing guests to experience the thrill of flying in a secure, adrenaline-filled setup. These zone-specific attractions help visitors better understand what awaits inside Boulevard World and make trip planning easier

Activities are distributed throughout the venue, allowing visitors to choose between relaxed exploration and more energetic entertainment. The environment is organized to support families visiting with both young children and older adults.

Fresh Experiences for 2025

For the 2025 edition, Boulevard World has introduced several enhancements to elevate the visitor experience, ensuring that even returning visitors have new elements to explore each year. Cultural zones now feature refreshed décor, new interactive elements, and more engaging installations ideal for photography and cultural immersion.

Family-focused ride areas have been upgraded with improved safety systems and smoother pathways, making it easier to navigate high-traffic sections. This year's entertainment lineup includes new live shows, themed parades, and seasonal performances designed to appeal to younger audiences.

Dining options have also expanded, offering a wider variety of international cuisines, including more Asian-friendly selections that resonate with South Asian and Bangladeshi visitors. These updates create a more dynamic and enjoyable environment for both returning guests and first-time travellers.

A Welcoming Global Experience for Bangladeshi Visitors

Boulevard World attracts a large number of international visitors, including many from South Asia, and holds particular appeal for Bangladeshi travellers. Its multicultural atmosphere, familiar South Asian food options, and festive environment filled with lights, music, and activities create a welcoming space for families.

Entertainment offerings cater to different age groups, making it suitable for both children and adults, while the diverse dining choices—including Asian favourites—enhance the overall experience with fresh yet familiar flavours. These elements align well with the preferences of Bangladeshi families living in Saudi Arabia or visiting from Bangladesh.

With refreshed features introduced for the new season, the venue continues to serve as a convenient and engaging destination for residents and international tourists alike.

For more information, one can visit:
<https://riyadhseason.com/en/zones/boulevard-world-rs25>