

SriLankan Airlines increases airfare over global jet fuel price hike

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 25 June, 2025

Dhaka: SriLankan Airlines has revised its airfare due to fuel surcharge increase following global jet fuel price hike.

Even though, Bangladesh, Europe, Japan, and Korea are excluded from the fuel surcharge revision, a fare increase will be implemented for markets originating from the following points of sale: short-haul markets, medium-haul markets, and long-haul markets.

The revised fuel surcharge amount for short-haul markets will be increased by USD 5, for medium-haul markets by USD 10, and by USD 15 for long-haul markets.

The revised surcharges will be effective from July 1, 2025, and will apply to all tickets issued on or after this date, regardless of booking or reservation date, said the airline in a notice.
