

Foodi launches grocery delivery service Foodimart

- A Monitor Report

Date: 16 April, 2026

Dhaka : Foodi has introduced a new instant grocery delivery platform called Foodimart, offering 24/7 service with delivery times as fast as 15 minutes across selected zones in Dhaka.

According to the announcement, the service is currently operational in 14 areas, including Gulshan, Banani, Uttara, and Dhanmondi, leveraging local technology and logistics networks to enable rapid order fulfillment.

The new platform aims to simplify everyday grocery shopping by providing fast, on-demand delivery of essential items. Alongside its quick service model, Foodimart will also feature promotional benefits such as free delivery offers, gift boxes, and seasonal deals including Boishakh Bazaar campaigns.

The company said the initiative is designed to make grocery shopping more convenient and accessible for urban consumers, positioning

Foodimart as a key player in Bangladesh's growing quick-commerce market.
