

Forbes Asia places Pathao in 100 to watch

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 September, 2025

Dhaka : Pathao has been named to Forbes Asia's "100 to Watch 2025," a list that spotlights the most promising and dynamic companies shaping the future of the Asia-Pacific region. This recognition comes at a special moment for Pathao, as they prepare to celebrate their 10 years anniversary in October, 2025.

In 2015, Pathao started out as a small delivery venture, with a mission to move people forward. In a decade, that mission grew into something bigger. Today, Pathao connects millions across Bangladesh and Nepal through rides, food delivery, courier services, and financial solutions that empower people to live with ease and freedom.

Along the way, Pathao has served over 10 million users and created earning opportunities for 500,000 people.

The next 10 years are about going further for Pathao, transforming financial access with Pathao Pay, expanding the services that connect people and businesses, and creating even more opportunities for growth and progress.

On the occasion, Pathao CEO Fahim Ahmed said, “Being named in Forbes Asia’s 100 to Watch as we mark 10 years of Pathao reflects how far we have come, the difference we continue to make in people’s lives, and our commitment to building a more connected and empowered Bang-ladesh.”
