

2 killed in private helicopter crash in Russia's Perm region

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 08 January, 2026

Dhaka: Two people were killed in a private helicopter crash on Wednesday, January 7, in Russia's Perm region, state news agency RIA reported, citing the regional branch of Russia's Emergency Situations Ministry.

According to the report, the helicopter crashed on the grounds of a recreation center in the Bardymy District.

“Unfortunately, two people died in the crash,” the report said, citing a statement from the regional branch.

The report said there was no damage to the ground and that approximately 40 personnel and 14 pieces of equipment have been deployed to respond to the emergency.

An updated version of the report noted that the helicopter's propeller was caught on cables above a ski slope during takeoff, causing it to crash into the snow.
