Budget carrier GoFirst has slashed airfares as a part of its Republic Day sale, passengers can book domestic fares starting at Rs 1,199 while international airfares start at Rs 6,599.

To avail of these prices, passengers need to book the tickets between January 23-26 while the travel period is February 12 and September 30.

Air India last week offered discounts on its flight tickets across the airline's domestic network in the run-up to the celebrations of India's 74th Republic Day.

The offer will be valid till January 23 2023 and will be available for sale on all Air India booking platforms, including through the airline's authorised travel agents. These discounted tickets will be available in Economy Class and applicable for travel across the domestic network in India from 1st February to 30th September 2023.

Starting from an incredibly low one-way fare of Rs 1705/-, the discounts will be available on over 49 domestic destinations. Whether it's the dream holiday tour with family or any business visit, one can grab these heavily discounted tickets on Air India's wide domestic network.
