

Agents unwilling to sell GoFirst tickets

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 22 May, 2023

Travel agents, who are likely owed more than ₹500 crore by Go First Airlines, aren't willing to sell its tickets despite verbal requests from the airline, which has filed for bankruptcy protection.

"The airline executives have told us it is trying its best to start operations from May 27. But at this point, we have no clue how Go will resume and sustain them," said a person in the know.
