

Ahmedabad bound IndiGo flight returns to Delhi due to glitch

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 28 April, 2024

New Delhi: An IndiGo aircraft en route to Ahmedabad returned to the national capital on Saturday (April 27) afternoon due to an issue with the landing gear, according to a source.

The aircraft, operating flight 6E 129, landed safely at the Delhi airport at around 1440 hours. There were around 170 people on board, the source said.

An IndiGo spokesperson said the aircraft is currently undergoing necessary inspection, and an alternate aircraft is being provided to the passengers.

The source said the plane had to return due to the landing gear issue, and that an emergency was declared for the flight.

In a statement, the spokesperson said the flight returned to Delhi after take-off as the pilot noted a technical issue.
