

Air Arabia Abu Dhabi announces new route Manama

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 05 May, 2022

Air Arabia Abu Dhabi, the UAE capital's first low-cost carrier, has announced the introduction of a new service to Manama capital of Bahrain, starting 15 May 2022.

Abu Dhabi travellers will now be able to fly direct to Bahrain International Airport with competitive prices and a frequency of three weekly flights.

Adel Al Ali, Group Chief Executive Officer, Air Arabia, said: "Offering our customers affordable and value driven air travel from Abu Dhabi remains our main priority. The new service to Manama, Bahrain is a testament to Air Arabia Abu Dhabi's commitment to its customers and the industry."

Bahrain's strategic position has made it one of the region's most significant commercial hub. The Kingdom of Bahrain also features multiple tourists' attractions, where Manama, the capital city comes at the top of the list for its wonderful charm, colorful markets, culture, and history.

The new service represents the 22nd route for Air Arabia Abu Dhabi since the launch of the carrier's service from Abu Dhabi International Airport in July 2020.

Customers can now book their direct flights between Abu Dhabi and Manama by visiting Air Arabia's website, by calling the call center or through travel agencies.

