

Air Arabia launches services to Athens

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 29 January, 2024

Sharjah: Air Arabia has launched its newest route, connecting Sharjah with Athens, the capital of Greece.

The flights will commence on June 28.

The new service will operate with a frequency of four weekly flights.

Adel Al Ali, group CEO of Air Arabia, said: “We are glad to announce the start of our non-stop service connecting Sharjah with Athens, a city known for its rich history, culture and business opportunities.

“The launch of Air Arabia’s flights to Athens reflects our ongoing commitment to provide our customers with seamless connectivity between the two cities while offering accessible and affordable travel options.

“We look forward to welcoming our passengers onboard to explore the ancient city of Athens.”
