

Air Arabia to begin daily service to Prague

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 03 July, 2025

Dhaka: Sharjah-based low-cost carrier Air Arabia has announced the launch of a new daily non-stop service connecting Sharjah, UAE, with Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, starting December 20, 2025.

“We are pleased to expand our European network with the launch of flights to Prague — a city renowned for its rich history, striking architecture, and strong tourism appeal,” said Adel Al Ali, Group Chief Executive Officer of Air Arabia.

“This new route underscores our commitment to offering customers greater travel flexibility while enhancing trade and tourism ties between the UAE and the Czech Republic.”

The addition of Prague further strengthens the airline’s European network and unlocks exciting travel options to explore the beauty of Europe, in addition to Vienna, Athens, Krakow, Warsaw (Chopin and Modlin), Milan Bergamo.

Air Arabia continues to expand its robust network of destinations, offering direct connectivity from Sharjah to cities across the Middle East, North Africa Asia and Europe.

Air Arabia operates a fleet comprising Airbus A320 and A321 aircraft.

-B