

Amari Dhaka unveils Mughlai-themed Iftar-cum-dinner spread for Ramadan

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 16 February, 2026

Dhaka: Amari Dhaka has unveiled an exquisite Mughlai-themed Iftar, Suhoor, and dinner spread, complemented by traditional items like Haleem and Jalebi ahead of the holy month of Ramadan. The unveiling took place during a food tasting event on Sunday, February 15 evening, at the hotel's Amaya Food Gallery restaurant.

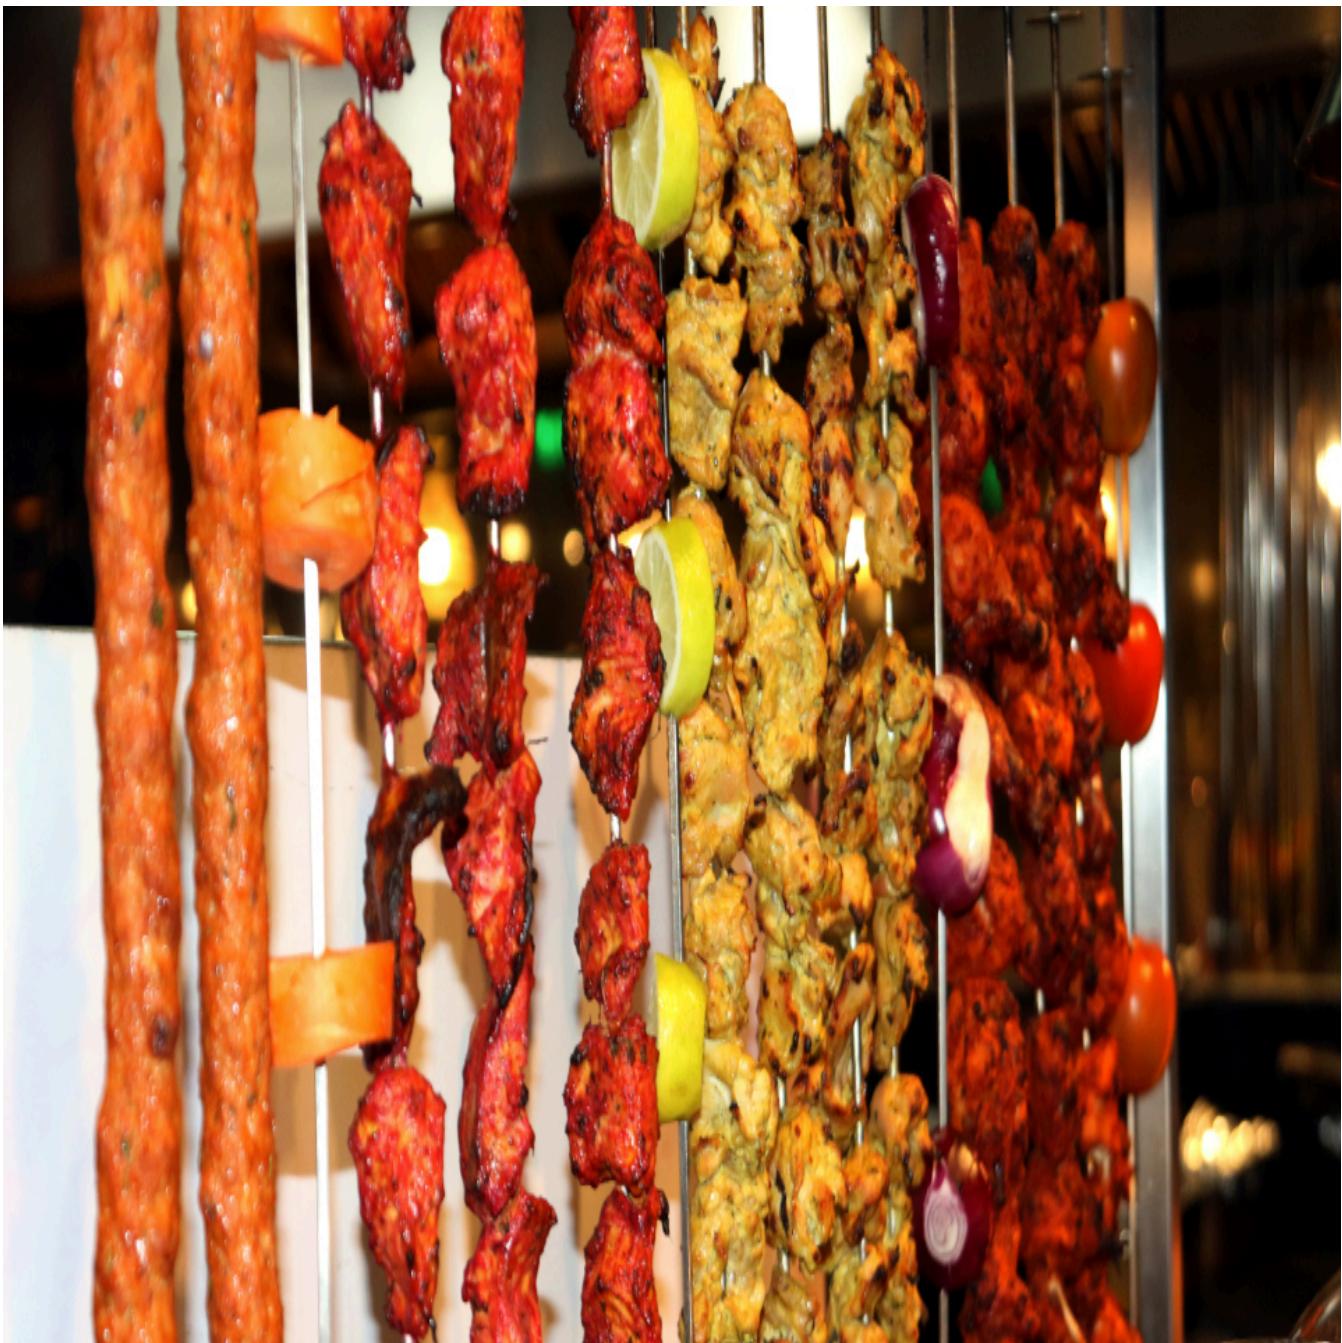

The evening began with an engaging press meet, attended by a delegation of renowned international chefs, who came from different countries to deliver Mughlai Cuisine's authentic taste and experience. The Mughlai cuisine, which originated during the 16th-century Mughal Empire, blends Central Asian, Persian, and Indian culinary traditions to craft luxurious and aromatic preparations.

Amari Dhaka said throughout Ramadan, the Mughlai-style Iftar and buffet, featuring Lucknowi and Hyderabadi-style Dum Biryani, Shahi Vegetable Pulao, Mughlai Paratha, and Murgh Masallam as signature dishes, will remain available daily at Amaya Food Gallery, while the Buffet Suhoor will be served on every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

In addition to signature items, the restaurant will serve expert culinary artist-prepared Nalli Nihari, Chicken and Mutton Korma, Rogan Josh, Mutton Chaap, Chicken Rezala Mughlai Gosht Qorma, Peshawari Chicken Kadahi, Akbari Machcli ki Curry, Nawabi Machli Kofta, Darbari Murg, Chicken in Thai Green Curry, Chicken in Hot Bean Sauce, Lamb Massaman Curry, Asian Fish in Golden Mustard Sauce, Prawns in Pepper Garlic Sauce, and Desserts (Mithai). The kebab section's highlights include Galouti Kebab, Murgh Malai Kebab, Seekh Kebab, Dahi Ke Kebab, Nargisi Kofta, and Lukhmi.

Despite this lavish offering, Amari Dhaka kept the prices affordable. The Iftar-cum-Dinner Buffet is priced at BDT 9,999 only, with the "EAT 4 Pay 1" offer available on selected cards. Meanwhile, the Suhoor Buffet will cost BDT 5,999, offering an "EAT 3 Pay 1" deal on selected cards.

Takeaway Iftar boxes will be available for pickup from Cascade Restaurant at the lobby level. The options include Arabian Platter or Platinum, Gold, and Silver Iftar boxes, starting from BDT 3,999. Each box has been curated to serve two persons, featuring local favorites alongside Moroccan, Arabian, and Indian signature dishes, presented in exclusive packaging.

V