

Amaya Food Gallery brings new express lunch menu

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 18 August, 2022

Dhaka: Located at level 13, Amaya Food Gallery has launched a new special four-course set menu for lunch. The price of the Quick Business Lunch is BDT 1250 net, which will include all the vat and service charge.

The restaurant is traditionally known for its handcrafted Asian signatures, but this new menu is sure to make a lasting impression with guests.

The new set menu ranges from Asian items and a four-course menu to mouth-watering entrees in which fresh and all-natural ingredients take center stage.

The new menu boasts a variety of Asian food to sample, share, or have all to yourself and has changed with the season in order to make sure that the restaurant can have the freshest food to enjoy.

Kung Pao Chicken is one of the many items on the menu. It is for those who enjoy eating BBQ chicken. Chicken lovers can also order a half-spit-roasted chicken with pita bread. Paneer makhani with naan bread and steamed fish with lime chili and ginger are also options. All of these are the main courses on the lunch menu.

Beetroot carpaccio, som tum salad, red cabbage and pineapple slaw, and wakame salad are all delicious salad options.

The most frequently served starter at mealtimes is soup. The corn egg drop, tomato shorba, yammy tom yum gai, and cream of mushroom soup are all served at Amaya Food Gallery.

The desserts are one of the other additions to the lunch set menu such as Fruit salad, Patishapta Pitha, ice cream, and chocolate brownies.

On the occasion, Christopher Baker, General Manager, Amari Dhaka, said, "Amaya Food Gallery is a place to dine when you want upscale food without the pressure of dining to match. Chef Monir does a phenomenal job of creating unique dishes that utilise fresh local ingredients.

Head Chef Monir of Amaya Food Gallery, said, "Our goal at Amaya Food Gallery is to allow diners to experience the many flavours offered on our menu and keep the price affordable."

- T