

ASEAN food festival at Ascott Hotels Dhaka concludes today

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 10 August, 2022

Dhaka: Ascott Hotels Dhaka in the capital is hosting “ASEAN Food Festival” till August 10, 2022 at its signature Royal Treat Restaurant.

The hotel’s renowned Chef Jashim Uddin, and his team is showcasing the event.

The food of ASEAN member countries is the highlight of this festival. The special dishes of Brunei, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam are featured in a scrumptious buffet at Royal Treat Restaurant.

The food festival started in commemoration of the ASEAN Day on August 8.

Dignitaries from the capital's diplomatic missions of ASEAN member nations inaugurating the food festival on August 8

Adventurous foodies are getting to explore the ASEAN member states through culture and flavour.

On the menu are popular favorites such as Malaysian Laksa Soup (Malaysian coconut soup with sea food) and Beef Rendang, and Indonesian Sate Ayam and Nasi Goreng and will give a taste of lesser-known specialties like Myanmar's Burmese Grilled Aubergine, Brunei's Nasi Katok and Penyaram, Thailand Pad Thai Noodles and Mango with sticky rice, Khao Niew Mamuang, Philippine's Chicken Aadobo, Singaporean Chili Crab, Vietnamese meat ball skewers and more exciting delicacies.

The three-day long food festival from August 8 was inaugurated in the presence of the capital's diplomatic missions of ASEAN member nations.