After its impossible-to-miss Grand Reveal Party at the end of January, Atlantis The Royal is now fully open to the general public. The 43-storey resort features 231 luxury apartments, 693 hotel rooms and 102 suites, all of which offer views of the Arabian Sea and Palm Island.

Room rates start from AED3,320 per night for a standard room with prices going up to AED19,260 for the Sky Pool Villa.

All hotel rooms feature a pillow menu, high-end amenities from Hermés and Graff and complimentary access to Aquaventure waterpark.

All guests staying in suites or signature penthouses can enjoy an elite butler service, offering unpacking luggage, pillow selection, clothes pressing, a private resort orientation and setting up exclusive experiences. The pillow menu consists of seven different types of pillows, including cool down, memory foam for the head, memory foam for the feet, buckwheat, pregnancy and a body pillow option.

All rooms are connected, allowing guests to control their room's thermostat, lighting, television and other amenities via their mobile phones.

The resort is also home to 90 swimming pools, including a rooftop infinity pool on the 22nd floor, suspended 90 meters above ground level.
