The move is aimed at reducing waiting time for passengers while collecting boarding passes at airport, said reports.

Biman will also offer the service to international passengers, in phases, from July 1, said the airline in a press release.

Online check-in can be done within 3-24 hours before departure on Biman's website (www.biman-airlines.com).

After completing the online check-in on Biman's website, passengers will have to collect the hard copy of the boarding pass by showing the digital pass at the web check-in counter at airport.

Passengers must check-in luggage at the airport's online check-in counter at least one hour before departure and collect hardcopy of their boarding pass.
