

Cathay Pacific increases frequency on Dhaka–Hong Kong route

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 06 May, 2023

Dhaka: Cathay Pacific is adding another flight on its Dhaka–Hong Kong route, offering passengers more opportunities to travel. The airline will operate one additional flight a week on Tuesdays from September 5, 2023, said Cathay in a release.

On Tuesday, Cathay's flight will depart Hong Kong at 22:55 and arrive in Dhaka at 01:00 (local time) while the return flight from Dhaka will fly on Wednesday at 02:10 and land in Hong Kong at 08:05.

The increase of frequency will provide passengers with direct access to Hong Kong in addition to seamless connections to onward destinations in the United States, Chinese Mainland, Canada, Australia, Japan and South Korea.

On the occasion, Ahmed Reza, Country Manager–Bangladesh and Bhutan, Cathay Pacific, said, “The enhanced schedule will provide our customers more options to travel and further boost connectivity with Hong Kong and onward destinations. Cathay currently covers over 70 destinations around the world, catering to business travellers and students while leisure trips gradually increase.”

Customers flying from Dhaka can now experience comfort on Cathay Pacific’s Airbus A330 aircraft, providing travellers with an unsurpassed cabin environment on its Dhaka-Hong Kong route.

The award-winning Business Class seats – ie the fully flat bed – will ensure passengers are comfortable. The Economy class, comes equipped with state-of-the-art inflight entertainment, and offers four times more content than before.

Customers can book their tickets on Cathay Pacific’s website or through their agency partners.

Customers booking their tickets through Cathay Pacific’s website can enjoy the flexibility to purchase tickets using a mix of Miles Plus Cash and also take advantage of an array of offers when booking with Cathay Pacific including exclusive student discounts to the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Japan, and 20 per cent off Hong Kong’s Airport Express service when travelling to Hong Kong.

As the home carrier of Hong Kong, Cathay Pacific is also excited to support the “World of Winners” Ticket Offers, where travellers stand a chance to win round-trip tickets to Hong Kong. Customers can sign up to become a Cathay member and enter the lucky draw.

- T