

Complimentary Dubai Marina Cruise for Emirates passengers

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 23 April, 2022

Dubai: For five months starting May 01 to September 30, Emirates is unlocking even more offers for all its customers arriving in or stopping over in Dubai with its My Emirates Summer Pass, which is just the boarding pass.

Emirates' customers can simply show their boarding pass and a valid form of identification to hundreds of retail, leisure and dining outlets to enjoy fantastic discounts throughout Dubai during the five-month long offer period.

Only during May, those landing in Dubai can enjoy a complimentary Dubai Marina Cruise, which gives unrivalled panoramic views of one of the city's most iconic skylines from the Arabian Gulf.

Pre-booking is not required for the single-entry complimentary ticket to Tour Dubai's one hour Marina Sightseeing Cruise. The Emirates customer just has to show a valid boarding pass, either digital or paper, at the ticketing counter on the day of use as well as proof of identity. The cruise is only valid from May 01 – 31 between 10am and 4pm.

Among many others special discounts at top designer brand outlets like Calvin

Klein and Tommy Hilfiger, Bath and Body Works, Atlantis Aquaventure ,IMG world of Adventure,Sofitel Spa with L'Occitane , spotArabianoryx , private desert safari , Dubai sightseeing, Dubai Creek on a cruise are offered to in Emirates Passholders.

Details of the offers can be found on www.emirates.com/myemiratespass.

In addition to an exciting calendar of world-class culture, shopping and dining, The Dubai Summer Surprises, one of the city's major shopping and entertainment events, will be also running with a packed line-up of events and family activities, exclusive shopping deals, fun competitions, and shop and win promotions.